Holidays in the United States

Draw a line to match the description to the word.

A. This holiday honors those who lost their lives fighting in wars for the United States.
   1. Independence Day

B. This holiday celebrates American workers. It also marks the end of summer for most Americans.
   2. Memorial Day

C. This holiday honors all active military and our veterans.
   3. President’s Day

D. This holiday is celebrated on July 4th. It celebrates the day the United States became an independent nation.
   4. Labor Day

E. This holiday honors past and present United States presidents.
   5. Veteran’s Day

F. This holiday was first celebrated by Pilgrims after their first harvest. Many Americans use this day to give thanks for the good things in their lives.
   6. Thanksgiving