Words can have different shades of meaning. Some words have more intensity or strength in their meaning. Order each set of words from least to most intense.

Example:

Less intense: Erin likes to eat candy.

More intense: Erin adores candy so much that she eats it twice a day.