A present tense verb means the action is happening now.
A past tense verb means the action already happened.
A future tense verb means an action will happen later.

Read each sentence. If the verb in the sentence is correct, circle “correct”. If the verb in the sentence is not correct, circle the correct verb to put in the sentence.

1. Renee walks home after school yesterday.
   a. correct
   b. walked
   c. walking

2. Mario singing in the concert tomorrow.
   a. correct
   b. singed
   c. will sing

3. The leaves fall on the ground.
   a. correct
   b. falled
   c. falling

4. Last month, I singed at the concert.
   a. correct
   b. singing
   c. sang

5. Jon and I go shopping last week.
   a. correct
   b. went
   c. gone

6. David ate his cereal in the morning.
   a. correct
   b. eated
   c. eating

7. Miley traveled to Florida for vacation next week.
   a. correct
   b. will travel
   c. traveling

8. Last night, Fred sitted in his seat at the movies.
   a. correct
   b. sat
   c. sitting