Use Possessives

Possessives use an apostrophe and an -s to show ownership. For example: a bike that belongs to Mary would be written as Mary’s bike.

Rewrite each phrase using a possessive.

1. the bike that belongs to Mary
   Mary’s bike

2. the house that belongs to the dog

3. the yarn that belongs to the cat

4. the shirt of the girl

5. the cake of the chef

6. the corn of the farmer

7. the bell that belongs to Ramon

8. the toy that belongs to Jackson

9. the house of Ben and Stephen

10. the boat of Brittany and Greg

11. the socks that belong to Jessica

12. the gloves of Carolina
