Read the glossary from a book about insects. Then, fill in the blanks in the sentences below. Each word in the glossary will be used once.

GLOSSARY

- antenna the part on an insect's head that is used for touching and smelling
- cling stick or hold on tightly
- cocoon the silky covering that a larva makes around its body
- compound eyes eyes that are made up of many parts
- disease sickness
- larva a young insect that has hatched from an egg and looks like a worm
- nectar the sweet juice of a flower
- skeleton a hard framework that protects the insides of an insect

1. An insect’s body is protected by a hard ____________________________.

2. A fly has __________________________ made up of many parts to help it see.

3. Insects ___________________________ tightly to fur, hair, and feathers.

4. A ____________________________ hatches from an egg and looks like a worm.

5. Insects smell food with their _____________________________.

6. A ____________________________ is the silky covering that protects a larva.

7. Flies spread ________________ by carrying illness and germs on their bodies.

8. Insects drink plant _____________________________.

© hand2mind, Inc. L2-69 hand2mind.com